1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Promotion to Access to information Act, 2000 No. 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) was enacted in order to promote a culture of transparency, accountability and good governance by giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.
- 1.2 The Act establishes voluntary and mandatory procedures which enable the public to obtain records of bodies as swiftly, effortlessly and inexpensively as possible to exercise and protect all rights as enshrined in the constitution.
- 1.3 NMG C & A Administrators (Pty) Ltd (‘NMG-Admin’) is a leading retirement fund administration company. NMG Admin provides a full range of services needed to effectively control and manage retirement fund and other employee benefit arrangements.
- 1.4 NMG-Admin has been approved as an administration company by the Financial Services Board with registration number 24/307.
- 1.5 This manual may be amended from time to time and as soon as any amendments have been finalised, the latest version will be made public.
- 1.6 This manual sets out to provide a generic manual to the financial services industry to deal with the requests in a conforming manner, which will enable the requestors to obtain the records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner. This manual may be adapted by the individual role players in the financial services industry to specifically meet their needs.
- 1.7 Wherever reference is made to “institution” in this manual, it will refer to the private bodies within the financial services industry, for whom this manual is drafted.
- 1.8 This manual has been compiled in compliance with the provisions of the Act, and lists the records in possession of NMG-Admin.

4.3 Refusal of access and protection of information

4.3.1 Section 9 of the Act which recognises that the right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

4.3.2 Furthermore, chapter 4 of the Act, which pertains to the “Grounds for Refusal of Access to Records”, provides mandatory protection for the following information, save in the special circumstances provided for in the Act:

- Information for the protection of the privacy of individuals (s63)
- Information for the protection of commercial information and confidential information of third parties (s64 and 65)
- Information for the protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (s66)
- Information privileged from production in legal proceedings (s67).

4.3.3 Furthermore, the right of access to the following commercial activities of NMG-Admin may be restricted

- Trade secrets of NMG-Admin;
- Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of NMG-Admin;
- Information which, if disclosed, could put NMG-Admin at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- Research information of NMG-Admin or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;
- Requests for information that is clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

5. The request procedure

- 5.1 Any request for access to records must be made to the appointed Information Officer as reflected in Section 2. A request for records in terms of the Act must be completed on the prescribed form which is attached hereto and marked “Annexure A”. A copy of the prescribed form is also available from the South African Human Rights Commission website being: www.sahrc.org.za. The duly completed form may be submitted by post, fax or email.
- 5.2 The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify:
- The record/s of the requester;
 - The identity of the requester;
 - The form of access required, if the request is granted;
 - The e-mail, postal address, or fax number of the requester.
- 5.3 The requester must identify the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested records are required for the exercise or protection of that right. If a request is made on behalf of a person, the requester must then submit the proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 5.4 If the request is for personal information, no request fee or deposit is payable. If the request is not of a personal nature, the requester must be notified to pay a request fee as well as an access fee and deposit, the details of which are contained in “Annexure B” which is attached hereto. The request need not be processed any further before receipt of payment of the access fee in respect of a personal request or the request fee and deposit (if applicable) in respect of other requests.
- 5.5 The Information Officer will then make a decision whether to grant the request or not and notify the requester in the required form. If the request is granted, then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction and preparation, and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.
- 5.6 NMG-Admin will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with.
- 5.7 If the request is refused the requester must be advised of the full reasons for the refusal as well as the remedies he/she may follow in objecting to the refusal.
- 5.8 If the search for a preparation of the record will take longer than the allowed 30 days, a further 30 days may be used, provided the requester is furnished with a notice in this regard.
- 5.9 If a request for access to information pertaining to a third party is received, the third party must first be informed of the request by way of notice.
- 5.10 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

6. Availability of the Manual

- 6.1 In terms of section 9 (1) of the Act, immediately after the manual has been compiled, the Information Officer must:
- Make a copy of the manual available to the Human Rights Commission
 - Make a copy of the manual available to the controlling body of which the private body is a member
 - Arrange for publication in the Government Gazette
 - Publish the manual on the website, if any, of the private body.
- 6.2 The Information Officer is required to make a copy of the manual available for public inspection during office hours. A fee may not be charged for public inspection.
- 6.3 The manual will be available in English only.
- 6.4 In terms of Section 52 of the Act the Minister of Justice is entitled to publish a list of records submitted by NMG-Admin to which the public may have access without the necessity of formally applying for access to such records.
- 6.5 The Minister may then publish such information by way of a notice in the Government Gazette.
- 6.6 At the time of drafting this manual, has given no such information to the Minister and no information has therefore been published. However, no formal application need be submitted in terms of the following information:
- General information pertaining to the companies
 - Services information and brochures.
